

Dr. Dunkins is the Senior Pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church (One Church in two Locations), which is located in Port Norris and Vineland, New Jersey. He has been the Senior Pastor of Shiloh since May 1987. He is a life-long learner with a varied educational background and after finishing his Associate's Degree in Social Work from Cumberland County College, he continued his educational pursuits. He received a BA in Social Work from Stockton State College, Philadelphia College of Bible , Bible certificate Program, a Master of Education Degree from Philadelphia College of Bible (PCB), a Master of Educational Leadership Degree from Philadelphia Biblical University, and a Doctor of Ministry in Missions & Contextual Leadership from Palmer Theological Seminary at Eastern University.

Dr. Dunkins was bi-vocational and retired from the Bridgeton Board of Education in 2011. Dr. Dunkins holds educational certifications in the following areas: Special Education teacher, Child Study Team Social Worker, Curriculum Supervisor, Principal and School Administrator. He has also served as an elected official serving one-term as a Cumberland County Commissioner.

Dr. Dunkins presently serves as the President of the Bethany Baptist School of Ordination and as the General Secretary for the General Baptist State Convention of New Jersey. He also serves as a Trustee on the Board of the newly formed Rowan College of South Jersey. Shiloh serves the communities of Commercial Township and Vineland through the Building Better Lives Community Development Corporation (C.D.C.).

Dr. Dunkins is a noted conference speaker, with a specialty on men, relationships and Missional Outreach. He is also an author of the following books: "Producing Under Pressure", "Seasons of Pain", "What a Man Thinks", "Don't Just Make a Baby, Be a Father", and "Engaging and Retaining Millennials in this Post-Christian Culture", which was the subject of his Doctoral Dissertation.

Dr. Dunkins is married to the former Marsha Morris. They have four children: Erica Yvette, Justin Allen, Jennifer Denise and Brittney Michelle. They also have seven grandchildren.